Retirement beckons for education visionary

THE principal of award-winning Leasowes Community College retires this Easter after 25 years at the helm.

John Howells took the headship at Leasowes in 1986 after moving from Wales and spending time as a maths teacher at Halesowen Grammar School, head of maths at Codsall High and deputy head at Holly Hall School in Dudley.

The college in Kent Road, Halesowen, was recognised by the 21st Century Learning Alliance, a group which champions excellence and was national winner in the Outstanding 21st Century School contest in 2008.

Mr Howells' approaches to learning have won him national recognition. Neil Shaw, vice principal of Leasowes said: "Thousands of students past and present have benefited from his vision of how learning should take place."

Mr Howells created the college's much-admired curriculum model and became a key player in the £10 million Dudley Grid for Learning, linking every school in Dudley and transforming the work of every student and teacher in the borough.

His work with the Halesowen Educational Trust has seen him collaborate on issues affecting the life chances of the local young people and has worked in an advisory role with the Qualification and Curriculum authority, the Specialist Schools and Academies Trust and the National College for School Leadership.

New kennels for stray dogs

A CONTRACT to care for stray dogs found in Dudley has gone to kennels in Stoke-on-Trent, it has been announced. Dogs found roaming in the borough used to go to Rose Dene Animal Rescue Service, Walsall.

However, after an illness broke out in December the council had to make a temporary switch to Stoke.

A two year contract for the service has now been won by Stoke's City Dogs home but council bosses will not say how much it is worth as details are deemed "commercially sensitive."

Talking books now on council website

A NEW service allowing people to download talking books for free has been launched in Dudley. The scheme means people can download up to 10 of the talking books via the council website.

The books stay on the user's computer – and any device it is transferred to, such as smart phones or MP3 players – for three weeks before being deleted. More than 600 talking books are available.

Fanatic jailed 16 years for weapons cache in house

A GUN fanatic who hoarded some of the deadliest weapons ever encountered by police in the West Midlands has begun a 16-year prison sentence.

Fruit and veg trader David Evans had Uzis, shotguns and a hitman-style pistol with a silencer, some of which were issued only to foreign armies.

Police who seized the cache of 10 deadly guns, one of the biggest of its kind in the West Midlands, initially feared they could have been used by far-right extremists.

They say the guns could have caused mayhem had they fallen into the hands of terrorists or the region's drugs gangs.

But detectives said 42-year-old Evans, of Lawnswood Road, Wordsley, was simply a collector who never had any plans to sell them or use them in crime. Judge

Michael Challinor said the machine guns were known as "room sprayers, designed for one purpose – killing people".

He told Evans, who was convicted of 29 firearms charges: "You cynically and deliberately collected this cache of weapons, some of which were described as firearms expert had seen in his 37-year career."

He said the guns were kept with "little or no security" when Evans had passed the weapons to a "naive" associate, 25-year-old Daniel Thatcher, of Summerfield Avenue, Wall Heath. Police searched Thatcher's house when he was arrested on an unrelated matter and found a 9mm Uzi and a 9mm pistol and cartridges under his bed.

Police found a bullet at a barn Evans ran his business from at Hinksford Farm, Swindon, South Staffordshire.

Evans, who was arrested on June 17 last year, was convicted by majority verdicts of 10-2 by jurors at Wolverhampton Crown Court last week. He was jailed for three years in 2005 for posting an illegal firearm to a legitimate dealer in Scotland.

Thorntons closing its town shop

CHOCOLATE giant Thorntons is closing its store in Dudley town centre after nearly 20 years of trading, it has been announced.

The shop, in Churchill Precinct, has been a fixture in the town since 1994. But the firm said it now also had a shop in the Merry Hill Shopping Centre, in Brierley Hill, and did not need two stores so close together.

The Dudley store will cease trading on May 28 after studies revealed it attracted fewer customers than the Merry Hill branch.

A sign has already been put up in the window announcing the closure. The firm is hoping to move the six staff at Dudley to other branches in the region.

Bosses say they may consider opening a smaller, franchise outlet in the town centre in the future.

SHOW CHAOS AS PEPPA PIG IN FIX

HUNDREDS of children were left disappointed this week when TV character Peppa Pig was forced to pull out of shows at Dudley's Merry Hill Centre – after getting stuck on the motorway with a flat tyre.

It followed a scramble for tickets which left many upset to find that all 500 tickets had already been handed out.

The fiasco got worse when shopping centre staff announced Tuesday's shows had been postponed until the following day.

Families with children, many dressed as Peppa or her brother George, were disappointed after turning up to snap up tickets – only to be told they had all gone.

The shopping centre staff announced over the public address system that the 11am show had been delayed.

But the bubble was totally burst for the crowds of youngsters and their families who had gathered in the centre hoping to catch a glimpse of their favourite TV characters when they were told they would no longer be turning up and the scheduled shows and would, instead, be performing a day late.

Merry Hill had been advertising that the free tickets for five Peppa Pig shows to run during the day would be available from 9am. A spokeswoman claimed at least 50 children had been turned away.

Hundreds

But mother Louisa Fretwell, aged 32, of Staite Drive, Crockley, near Kidderminster, who was with her 11-month-old son, Zach, and her nephew Charlie Foale, aged 17 months, of Brooklands Drive, Kidderminster, said: "The centre have made a right pig's ear of it."

"There are hundreds of people here, including children who had come in all their Peppa Pig gear."

Merry Hill said tickets for the Tuesday shows would be honoured on the following day. Ticket-holders who were unable to make it for the new time would be given tickets for a "character" event later in the year.

Artist Luke Perry from Cradley Heath works on his latest piece of art

Canalside art is on schedule

THIS image of a miner is set to feature in a new £40,000 trail connecting Sandwell and Dudley along a five mile stretch of the Dudley Canal.

Cradley Heath artist Luke Perry created the "test" sculpture to feature among 35 two dimensional sculptures. It is hoped the trail will be installed this summer, and formally opened to the public on July 31.

It will stretch from Blowers Green Bridge, Pear Tree Lane, Dudley, through Bumble Hole Nature Reserve on the Sandwell border to the Gorsy Hill Tunnel, Old Hill.

Luke, aged 27, set up his firm, Industrial Heritage Stronghold, three years ago creating artwork championing the Black Country.

He said: "Everything is on schedule, with 80 per cent of the designs now completed."

'Unique' canal tunnels get top national award

From left, Peter Stone of The Transport Trust, Stuart Wilkinson, trust chairman, Vic Smallshire chairman of Dudley Canal Trust, the Mayor and May-ress of Dudley Councillor Peter and Mrs Hilary Miller and British Waterways' Tony Hales

ONE of the Black Country's top tourist attractions has won official recognition for its importance in Britain's transport heritage.

Dudley Canal Tunnel has been awarded a Red Wheel plaque by the Transport Trust in recognition of its status as a "unique complex of tunnels developed since 1778 for limestone and coal mining, for through navigation and increasingly for tourism".

The Transport Trust aims to raise awareness and appreciation of Britain's transport heritage. Its website carries full details of more than 800 important locations throughout the country and across all modes of transport - from Roman roads to seaplane bases.

The most important of these are also being marked on site by the award of commemorative plaques, known as Red Wheels - with Dudley Canal Tunnel being the first in the West Midlands. The plaque at Dudley was unveiled by British Waterways chairman

Tony Hales, supported by Transport Trust president Sir William McAlpine, the Mayor of Dudley Councillor Peter Miller and Dudley Canals Trust chairman Vic Smallshire. During the ceremony the Trust also took the opportunity to bring together two artefacts for the first time.

These were the notice of closure put up at the Tipton portal in 1962 by the British Waterways Board and a new commemorative plaque saying "Dudley Canal Tunnel. Closed by the Government on behalf of the People. Re-opened by the People on behalf of themselves".

Ceremony

The ceremony was also attended by members of Dudley Canals Trust and representatives of local tourism bodies and canal societies. The tunnel system under Castle Hill was originally constructed to help transport limestone from the mines.

Tony Hales, British Waterways chairman said: "Thanks to the wonders of 18th century engineering and the perseverance and foresight of 20th Century volunteers, Dudley Tunnel remains as one of the most enduring landmarks on the Midlands canal network."

"The Red Wheel plaque recognises the efforts of those that built and restored the tunnel system as well as those who continue to promote and interpret it."

Hospital trust's pledge on skin

DIRECTORS from Dudley's hospital trust have helped launch a campaign to raise awareness among patients and staff of pressure ulcers. The six directors of the Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust have given their backing to the We Love Your Skin drive, urging clinical teams to pledge to protect patients from developing pressure ulcers while they are in hospital. The condition, also known as bedsores, can be caused by unrelieved pressure, friction or medication among others.

Art is a window on saint's story

AN artist has been working with pupils to create three pieces of art to kick-start celebrations to mark a Sandwell primary school's 150th anniversary.

Darrell Wakelam, from Devon, has been working with different classes at St Martin's Primary School in Tipton in the run up to Easter.

The result is three stained-glass-window style pictures depicting the story of St Martin.

"It looks fantastic," said headteacher Sarah Bott.

Victorian

"He has built up a frame with 3-D edges to make it look as if you're peering through a stained-glass window."

"It's a great way to start our celebrations. It will go in a prominent position in the school reception."

Future events to mark the anniversary will include a mural made up of pupils' drawings, which will be put up outside the school, and a Victorian week.

This is due to start on May 16 and will include fancy dress plus Victorian-themed games and activities.

Worker's dismissal was fair - tribunal

A DUDLEY assembler who had not worked for seven months because of arthritic hands has lost compensation claims for unfair dismissal and disability discrimination.

She worked at Whittan Industrial Ltd of Telford.

Mrs Valda Williams, aged 52, of Bunn's Lane, was at Birmingham Employment Tribunal.

She said her GP signed her off work because of arthritis but she herself believed she was capable of another role at the firm. "I was told I could not come back to work because I would be a health of safety risk in view of my hands," she said.

Mr Jonathan Melia, for the firm, said the management had been told in the GP's report that Mrs Williams was unfit for work. "A retirement scheme was proposed," said Mr Melia.

Mrs Williams was eventually dismissed on the grounds of incapability because of ill-health.

Mrs Williams admitted she never challenged her GP about his assessment.

She accused the firm of failing to make adjustments to find her a different job.

Tribunal judge Miss Mary Cocks said Mrs Williams failed to challenge her GP about his assessment while the firm believed she was not fit to return to work.

"Mrs Williams wanted another role but the firm said nothing was available. As a result, the claims for unfair dismissal and disability discrimination are rejected."

A chance encounter with two suspected burglars led police to a huge weapons cache in the Black Country.

THIS is the haul of deadly guns hoarded by a Midland weapons fanatic and uncovered by police in one of the biggest single seizures of firearms the region has seen.

American and Israeli military issue machine guns were found alongside a pistol with a "hitman-style" silencer attached.

Police feared the stash may have fallen into the hands of terrorists plotting a Mumbai-style massacre, or violent drugs gangs.

Ammunition included bullets designed to explode on impact for maximum damage.

The arsenal's owner, gun enthusiast David Evans, is beginning a 16-year prison sentence after being found guilty of possession of the 10 weapons and more than 500 bullets.

Business

A major investigation is still trying to determine how fruit and veg seller Evans got hold of the collection, although some of the components were bought on eBay. The haul was found after a chance arrest of brothers Daniel and Lee Thatcher – held at Cavendish House, a derelict council building in Dudley town centre, for burglary in May. Police then searched their homes.

In a hold-all at the garage of Lee's home, officers found a "military-calibre" Kalashnikov, also known as an AK74. A firearms expert described it as "as dangerous a weapon as I have seen to date". Under gun enthusiast Daniel's bed, officers found a 9mm Uzi, a 9mm pistol and cartridges.

In interview the 25-year-old mobile mechanic, who had a firearms licence for three legally held guns, refused to say if he fired most of the illegal weapons.

Shotguns, pistols and hundreds of live rounds were also found at the homes.

Lee, aged 28, said his brother asked to store the hold-all at his garage, but thought it contained tools.

He was sentenced to 450 days, the equivalent of just less than 15 months, at Wolverhampton Crown Court in December but was expected to be released immediately due to time spent in custody.

Lee, whose address cannot be published for legal reasons, admitted six charges relating to possession of guns and four relating to ammunition.

Daniel, of Summerfield Avenue, Wall Heath, admitted 10 charges related to firearms and seven relating to ammunition and was jailed at the same time for three years and eight months.

The brothers said they found the guns in a disused mine but Det Insp Gary Dring, who led the investigation, said: "Because of the nature of the weapons that we recovered, we had to then look at where they got them from."

"Those types of weapons are not seen in this country, they are not seen on the streets and you don't see gangs using them."

This M4 Carbine was among the firearms found

Dangerous weapon – the AK74 which was recovered

Seized – the Israeli army issue Uzi weapon

How burglary put police on trail of deadly weapons haul

Role play of fanatic

DAVID Evans told police how he liked to re-enact scenes from war films in his attic with prop guns – and admitted he was "a bit sad".

He said he bought only replica weapons to help recreate scenes from We Were Soldiers and Saving Private Ryan in his loft.

He told officers: "It might sound a bit sad, but in my loft I had some mannequins which I dressed as German soldiers, American soldiers, this soldier, that soldier. But obviously I had no guns. That's when I started buying the guns to put on the uniforms."

Stored guns

Evans told police the government had "screwed it all up" by changing gun laws, which meant firearms he had previously held legally were now illegal.

"I just love guns," Evans told officers. "A lot of people might not like it but I'm a bloody fanatic with them."

Daniel Thatcher, who stored the guns for Evans, eventually gave evidence against him. In return he was given a three-year, eight month prison sentence instead of an 11 year sentence.

Robot gives surgeon a guiding hand

A CANCER patient from Halesowen has become the first in the Midlands to have an operation carried out by surgeons assisted by a robot.

Philip Hansford, aged 66, is recovering after surgery at Wolverhampton's New Cross Hospital to have his prostate gland removed.

Prostate cancer specialist Peter Cooke led the team during last Thursday's surgery, using the Da Vinci Robot – a step up from keyhole surgery which minimises blood loss, and means a quicker recovery time. The new technique features a robotic cart with arms, with instruments mounted on to them, which are moved by the surgeons.

The device senses the surgeon's hand movements and translates them electronically into scaled-down micro-movements to manipulate the tiny instruments.

Accuracy

It also detects and filters out any tremors in the surgeon's hands, so that they are not duplicated robotically. Mr Hansford, a retired building surveyor, was diagnosed with prostate cancer last Christmas. Recovering at home he said: "I wanted to thank Peter Cooke and his team for all the work they did – I was nervous to begin with when they said what the operation would involve, but everyone at New Cross made it so easy," he said.

Mr Cooke said: "Using the Da Vinci Robot opens up a whole new world of technical innovation and accuracy that is unheard of using the more traditional methods of surgery. The operation went without a hitch and took around four hours, so I am absolutely over the moon."

A Sprite leads an earlier parade

A BUSINESSMAN has stepped in to run the Sandwell Historic Vehicle and Transport Show next month.

More than 10,000 car enthusiasts are expected in the borough for the annual event in May which will be run between Northamptonshire businessman David Alderson and Sandwell Council.

The show, which will be the 33rd staged, will again be held at Sandwell Valley in West Bromwich, on May 8.

More than 500 vehicles will be on show, some dating back to the 1920s and including a 1924 Rolls Royce Cabriolet and a 1920 Triumph Motorcycle.

American cars, commercial vehicles, buses and motorcycles will compete for the 48 awards on offer. Other attractions include an arena with the Piston

Ring Youth Motorcycle Display Team, craft fair, market, trade stands and a fun fair.

There were doubts about the future of the Sandwell Show and the Historic Vehicle Show earlier this year when it was feared the council planned to charge admission.

It had emerged chiefs had drawn up plans to charge admission for the show in May so it could pay for itself.

Aborted

The authority sent out tenders for caterers and entertainers and spent £150 advertising the new charges in magazines before it aborted plans.

Former organiser Geoff Price, of Transtar Promotions, ruled himself out of the event when he believed a charge would be introduced.

Railway jobs and services are cut

JOBS have been axed and little-used train services scrapped from timetables as the historic Severn Valley Railway tries to get back on track following a fall in passenger numbers.

Bosses at the attraction said they had been forced to make "tough, unpalatable" decisions.

A total of 12 positions at the railway have been axed, including that of traffic manager Dewi Jones.

His responsibilities have now been distributed. The other 11 jobs, both part and full-time, have gone in departments such as accounts, shops and visitors' services.

Five workers, including the traffic manager, left due to redundancy. The rest had reached retirement age.

Bosses said the railway was facing up to the reality of last year's downturn when 20,000 fewer passengers used the line than expected. The final figure stood at 225,000. The railway's target had been 245,000.

The shortfall meant a revenue loss of £240,000 based on an average income of £11 per passenger. But shareholders bought shares worth more than £250,000 during the year which cancelled out the deficit.

Positive

The least popular train services have also been axed to help cut costs.

Bosses said the job losses were necessary as they were expecting passenger numbers to drop further to 205,000 during the year.

But the fact that 6,600 passengers used the line during February and March – despite major engineering works which halted many services – was seen as a positive.

General manager Nick Ralls said: "We have had to make some tough, unpalatable decisions. However, it is the only responsible way to go."

Dedicated – Paul Brown, who has clocked up 25 years as a special constable

Hats off as Paul clocks up his special record

A SPECIAL constable from Dudley has clocked up a quarter of a century with West Midlands Police, totalling more than 10,000 hours of voluntary work.

By day 45-year-old Paul Brown, who lives in Halesowen, is a depot manager for BOC Gases in Brierley Hill.

But in his spare time he is out on the beat as a "special". He joined up in 1986 on the police J Division, originally based at Dudley, moving to Sedgley and in 2002 taking up a post at his Lye base now part of Dudley Local Policing Unit.

Paul said: "I joined the Special Constabulary to meet the public and help to deal with any issues in their hour of need. Over the years, I have done just that and it has been a very rewarding thing to do."

"I have had an amazing journey with the specials and have seen more changes than most over the years, especially with how the Special Constabulary has developed and become an integral part of neighbourhood policing."

He added: "The role of a special constable has changed a lot since I first started."

Image

"When I joined, specials were mainly used for policing fetes, carnivals and other special events."

"The image and role of the special constable has totally transformed, from the old 'hobby bobby' image, to professional volunteer police officers, who wear and carry the same uniform and equipment as regular police officers and have to go through an intensive training course."

District Officer James Horton, head of Dudley Special Constabulary, said: "Paul has dedicated a tremendous amount of unpaid hours to the policing of Dudley borough during his service, often after a hard day's work."

"His sense of humour, combined with his knowledge and policing skills, demonstrates how being a volunteer police officer has played a very rewarding and unforgettable part of Paul's life," added Mr Horton.

Dudley LPU has 75 members of the Special Constabulary, who commit to a minimum of 16 hours a month.

Special constables have the full powers of a regular Police Constable.

Volunteers serving up hot meals for needy

A SOUP kitchen to help struggling families make ends meet during the economic downturn has been launched by volunteers from a Dudley church.

Champions Church, Netherton, organised it to help homeless and disadvantaged people.

The service is being run from the church's former 19th century Baptist Church base, in St Giles Street, yards from its new £3 million home in Cinder Bank. Forty people, including individuals and families, turned out last week after a previous successful trial run.

Marvellous

Worship Pastor Adam Nash helped organise the service with team leader Mark Goule and up to 40 volunteers sparing time to cook and serve meals.

They eventually hope to serve a hot two-course meal to everyone who turns up each week. It is aimed at people in need but volunteers say no one will be turned away.

The project is self-funded by cash and food donations.

Champions Church's community action group has a mobile food parcel service for other areas of Dudley including Wren's Nest and Pensnett but Mr Nash says it was felt right to expand the service to serve people living near the church.

He says they do not plan to turn away anyone in need and hope to accommodate as many people as possible.

Volunteers will also lay on a minibus to help collect people from outside Netherton to enable them to get a meal.

The kitchen will open

Soup kitchen just Champion

Hot and wholesome - volunteer cooks Pam Harris, from Dudley, and Pat Baynham from Halesowen, prepare the meals for the Champions Church soup kitchen service in Netherton each Tuesday at 6.30pm John Fisher, aged 49, of Holly Hall, said: "I am a member of the church and when this event was announced, I would try it out. I really enjoyed it which is why I came again this week. It is a marvellous idea and also boosts the profile of the church."

Terry Lawley, aged 66, of Dudley, also attended last week's trial - and has now joined the church regularly. "Everyone here is so friendly. They really go out of their way to help you and make you feel welcome," April Dykes, 24, of Netherton, said she urged friends and neighbours to attend. "The meals are lovely and it brings the community together." Lennie Loveridge and Shaun Scott, both 18, from Dudley, said it was "great".

Cool and hip happening at 60s' revival

THE swinging 60s have been celebrated at an event at a Black Country attraction.

Staff at Haden Hill House museum in Cradley Heath staged an evening of nostalgia last Thursday, with live music and retro fashion.

Development officer Alison Hyatt said it was an opportunity for people to relive their youth or get an insight of how their parents were as teenagers.

She added: "We are also interested in collecting people's memories of what they used to get up to in the local area during the '60s or any photographs they may have of Haden Hill House or the park."

Anyone who wants to contribute should call the museum at Haden Hill Park on 01384 569444.

Development officer Alison Hyatt, left, Robin Cooper and Anne Willets

Fire service hoax calls reach 3,500

HOAX calls to West Midlands Fire Service cost the taxpayer more than £430,000 in one year.

Emergency fire crews raced to locations across the region on more than 1,400 occasions after 3,500 fake calls were made.

Eight hoaxers had their telephones permanently cut off for repeatedly making malicious calls throughout 2010. Fire service spokeswoman Lindsey Preece said the cost of false and malicious calls, which led to at least one emergency appliance being sent out, was £300 a time.

"Hoax calls are not just down to the younger generation but seasonal trends indicate an increase in the number of false and malicious calls during school holidays," she said.

The Fire Service works closely with telephone network providers and West Midlands Police to counteract false calls.

Warning on time-limit ticket spy at car park

All shipshape for big canal event

Canal trust members Jeni Hatton, front, Pat Walker and Graham Hatton get ready for the open weekend at the Hawne Basin in Halesowen

MORE than 3,000 canal enthusiasts will descend on a historic Black Country canal basin for an open weekend featuring more than 70 boats.

The free event, organised by Combewood Canal Trust, will be held at the Hawne Basin, in Halesowen, on April 30 and May 1.

Organisers are hoping for good weather after the last event two years ago was hit by heavy rain. Two marquees will be packed with craft displays featuring jewellery, clothes and waterways collectibles.

Visitors will also be able to tour the Dudley Number Two Canal up to the Gorsty Hill tunnel and get a closer look at the 70 boats permanently moored at the canal basin.

The trust will also tell visitors about its work to improve the basin and the canal and visitors will be able to see the historic working boats, Atlas and Malus.

A HIDDEN camera is ensuring drivers are fined if they take more than a few minutes to buy a parking ticket at a Brierley Hill shopping centre.

Drivers were this week warned that the clock starts ticking as soon as they drive into the car park.

Fines are automatically generated for anyone who does not purchase a ticket within a few minutes – regardless of how long it takes them to find a space.

A Dudley mother-of-three learned the hard way after being fined £60 for a 12-minute delay between entering and buying a ticket.

Jane Lennon, aged 36, said she had never suspected the short delay would end up being so costly. "I feel that anyone using the Moor Street Car park needs to be made aware of the short amount of time given to acquire a ticket before they try to charge you," said Miss Lennon, of Lawn Avenue, Stourbridge.

Her fine notice came through in the post almost a month after she parked at the Moor Street Car Park in Brierley Hill, which is run by Excel Parking Services, while she went to Mecca Bingo nearby.

Appealed

The notice includes photographs of Miss Lennon's car entering the car park at 6.35pm and leaving at 9.04pm.

Miss Lennon still has the ticket she bought that evening, when she parked up for a night at the bingo.

The ticket was valid from 6.47pm to 9.47pm. She has now appealed the fine and is awaiting a response.

"It was a grand total of 12 minutes from me entering the car park and paying for my ticket, and it only took that long as I had to circle looking for a space and there was a queue for the machine. I also have to insert the same coins a few times as it kept spitting out my money," said Miss Lennon.

Excel spokeswoman Lucy Montgomery said the 12-minute gap between entering the car park and paying had exceeded the "reasonable time" allowed to purchase a ticket.

She said she could not reveal what the "reasonable time" limit was.

Rapper chemist hit

"DEREK the Hip-Hop chemist" from Dudley is proving a huge hit on the internet as the character spearheads a "rap" to persuade youngsters in the borough to use the local NHS Pharmacies. There have been more than 1,000 hits on YouTube in just over a week since NHS Dudley started using the catchy tune, accompanied by a video featuring landmarks and students to promote its "Think Pharmacy" campaign.

Fees set at £9,000 maximum

AT LEAST a third of all universities in the West Midlands will be charging students £9,000 a year from next year, with the rest due to make an announcement on fees in the next couple of weeks.

Birmingham, Warwick and Aston universities have decided that they will be charging the increased rate of £9,000.

Wolverhampton, Staffordshire, Birmingham City, Keele and Worcester are due to announce how much they will set fees at over the next few weeks.

Coventry has said its fees will be between £4,600 and £9,000. All universities must submit their plans to the Office for Fair Access before the end of April. It was revealed yesterday that Derby University will buck the trend of charging students £9,000 for next year by setting fees at less than £7,500 for the majority of courses.

Derby's announcement will be a boost for the Government which has based its future funding of universities on the assumption most will charge around £7,500.

Maximum

The majority of universities are sticking to around £9,000, with the most elite institutions leading the way.

Around 25 English universities have declared their intended fee levels for next year, with most planning to charge £9,000.

Universities planning to charge the maximum amount are Cambridge, Oxford, Imperial College London, University College London, Manchester, Essex, Leeds, Durham, Lancaster, Bath, Loughborough, Exeter, Sussex, Surrey, Liverpool and Liverpool John Moores, and those in the West Midlands.

Ministers have warned universities that if the majority set fees at, or close to £9,000, then more funding for teaching may be lost.

Liverpool Hope plans to charge less than £9,000, while Bishop Grosseteste University College Lincoln has said fees for the majority of its courses will be £7,500.

MPs voted to raise tuition fees to £6,000 from 2012 at the end of last year, with institutions allowed to charge up to £9,000 only in "exceptional circumstances".

EastEnder and Archer honoured by mayor of borough

Council leader Councillor Darren Cooper and Mayor Councillor Pauline Hinton, with Josie Lawrence and Bill Archer

OLD Hill-born actress Josie Lawrence was all smiles as she was officially installed as a Freeman of the Borough of Sandwell.

The 51-year-old actress, who was recently in EastEnders playing the role of Amanda Best, became the borough's 11th freeman in a ceremony attended by 140 people, including her family and friends.

Josie is regularly seen in and around the borough as she still has family there. "This is such a great honour, no, it's my greatest honour," she said. "I am humbled by this. London, where I now live, is where my head is for work but Sandwell and Old Hill is where my heart is."

Perhaps best known for her time in the TV comedy series Whose Line Is It Anyway? Josie is also a successful stage actress. She began at the Barlow Theatre in Oldbury where she is now a patron.

Josie has also helped to raise hundreds of thousands of pounds for breast cancer research and for children with autism and special needs. Josie is the second actress honoured in Sandwell, following Smethwick-born Julie Walters.

Also at the ceremony was one of Sandwell's best-known characters, ex-mayor and former Wednesbury councillor Bill Archer who was made an honorary alderman. He raised a record amount of money – £35,500 – for charities Prostate Cancer and Guide Dogs for the Blind during his year as mayor.

"I enjoyed every minute serving the people of Wednesbury," he said.

Both awards were made by Sandwell Mayor Councillor Pauline Hinton who said: "They richly deserve these honours."

Mother's safety plea after bath tragedy

THE heartbroken mother of a Rowley Regis woman killed by a power fault wants the Government to order landlords to carry out electrical checks.

Jane Andain's call came following the death of her daughter Thirza Whittall.

She died when an electrical fault made her bath taps live just six days after she moved into her Cornish dream home in 2008.

Mrs Whittall, aged 33, had moved from Rowley Regis with her husband Fred and their two young children to a new home in Portscatho, near St Mawes.

A faulty heater and the lack of an earth bonding under the enamel bath turned the metal taps into a live conductor.

The wiring in her rented property had not been tested since 1981.

The coroner at her inquest said checks could have prevented her death. Her mother is calling for the introduction of legal requirements on landlords to ensure electrical safety in rented homes.

While landlords have to provide an annual gas safety certificate, there is no equivalent obligation for electrical installations.

Mrs Andain said: "Thirza was a very passionate woman and very committed to campaigning for what she believed in. I think she would want me to raise awareness of this issue."

She is now working with the Electrical Safety Council to promote a tenants' checklist.

Second blaze hits the Tavern

A PUB in Dudley has been damaged in the second fire at the building this year.

The blaze in the rear bar area at the Hill Tavern pub in Kates Hill broke out shortly after 3am last Friday.

The pub in Watsons Green Road was targeted in an arson attack in February which damaged a bar and wrecked a smoking area but it is not known what has caused the latest fire.

There's an easier way to help someone switch to digital TV. Get them to call the Help Scheme.

Switching someone to digital can be relatively straightforward. But it can involve coming back to re-tune twice and in some cases replacing the aerial. If you really want to help someone switch, the best way may be to recommend the Switchover Help Scheme.

We can provide anyone aged 75 and over or eligible disabled with:

- Easy-to-use equipment
- An approved installer to supply and install the equipment for them
- A check on their TV aerial and replacement if necessary, where we can
- A 12 month aftercare service including a free helpline

This service is available for just £40 all-inclusive or free if they're eligible and on certain income-related benefits.

Shopping complex must come down

The mismatched bricks at the neighbouring buildings in Dudley

A NEW shopping complex built at a main gateway into Dudley will be demolished after a row over planning rules, it has emerged.

Businessman John Hart appealed to planning inspectors in Bristol to allow him to keep the development at the former Westfields Stamping site on the corner of Wolverhampton Street and Stafford Street. But they backed Dudley Council's decision that the mini-retail park, granted permission in 2007, must be knocked down as it looks out of place with neighbouring properties. The council said Mr Hart broke several conditions of the planning consent.

He did not use red bricks similar to that of the locally listed Dudley Snooker Club and also failed to ensure that windows arched to match those at the club.

Message

In July the council handed Mr Hart an enforcement notice ordering him to demolish the four large partially-constructed buildings but he appealed to the Planning Inspectorate.

Council planning committee chairman Councillor Tim Wright said of the inspectorate's decision: "It sends a clear message out to people in the borough that conditions are not there to be ignored."

Planning Inspector Andrew Hammond said the notice was not a "bolt out of the blue".

He added: "The appellant was given ample opportunity to enter into constructive discussions prior to the service of the enforcement notice but did not do so."

Mr Hart runs several firms, including West Bromwich Construction Ltd, West Bromwich and Dudley Estates Ltd, Dudley, and is also involved in an estates firm in Miami, Florida. He was unavailable for comment.

Campaign for action on horses goes online

AN online campaign and petition calling for urgent action over stray horses roaming Dudley's streets has been launched by fed-up residents. The Dudley Borough Against Roaming Horses page on social networking site Facebook has attracted almost 300 followers. More than 160 people have also signed a petition – which will eventually be handed to Dudley Council – since it was started just two weeks ago.

Mother-of-two Mary McCrory, of Kingswinford, who is behind the campaign, said she had become increasingly worried about the welfare of both the wandering horses and people who encounter them.

"There used to be one or two horses around but now we have herds of horses," she said. "They are lovely animals but it is not safe to let them roam around schools."

"We want to work with the council and the owners to help provide a safe environment where the animals are given care, food, shelter and medical treatment."

She said there had recently been problems with horses churning up playing fields near Crestwood Park Primary School as well as animals running out into the streets in front of cars.

Mrs McCrory, of Nanaimo Way, said she is expecting her third child, which has made her more concerned about the potential dangers of the horses roaming free.

"We are not looking for animals to be destroyed, just to be looked after and to stop them from roaming into areas where they are putting the elderly, the young and themselves at risk," she added.

Nuisance

Dudley Council is putting the finishing touches to plans which will see the authority team up with police to round up horses that are causing a nuisance.

The council has logged more than 400 calls over stray horse sightings since the start of the year.

The animals have been spotted across Kingswinford, Wordsley, Pensnett and on the Russells Hall estate as well as other parts of the Black Country including Tipton.

Strays block a main road

UP TO 20 stray horses caused havoc when they blocked a main road in Dudley as they sauntered between grass verges to graze.

The animals brought traffic to a standstill in Bromley Lane, Kingswinford, during evening rush hour on April 5.

Passers-by were confronted by the horses which congregated by the railway bridge near the junction with Bryce Road. Some were seen grazing on nearby school fields during the afternoon. Office worker Rob Hess was among drivers who were delayed.

He said some motorists got out of their cars to try and move the horses, but the animals had been stubborn.

"There must have been around 15 or 20 horses in all. They were crossing the road from one side to another to try and find grassland," he said.

"Some of the drivers did try to shoo them along but it did not work. They were really stubborn and just carried on crossing the road."

"This was a very serious situation because of the numbers of horses involved."

Problem

Newsagent worker Sandra Staves said the horses have become a constant problem in the area over the past few weeks.

"This wasn't the first time, we've had them here lots of times," she said. "It was absolutely treacherous with them here at the same time people were coming out of the schools on the road."

Nostalgia to lift charity night

Zoe and Sian Westwood get ready for the 1940s night at the Beacon Centre for the Blind

THE STYLES and sounds of the 1940s will be celebrated by a Sedgley charity to raise cash for blind and partially-sighted people in the region.

The Beacon Centre for the Blind is hosting the event which will include a traditional fish and chip supper.

It will be held at the centre, in Wolverhampton Road East, on May 21. Doors open at 7.30pm. People can dress in fashions of the period if they wish and a prize will be given for the best costume.

Music will be provided by singer Maggie O'Hara and cash raised from the event will go towards services offered by the centre. Tickets at £8.50 for adults and £5 for children under 14 are available from community fundraising officer Karen Gullick on 01902 880111.

Organiser Sian Westwood said: "I am really excited about this event."

"It will be great to see everyone joining in the fun and having a great evening out."

If you want rooms like these make sure your conversion company has the TrustMark Logo, which shows it is insured against such problems as unfinished or below standard work

Lofty designs to help expand your house

A RECENT report suggests there will be a shortfall of 750,000 homes by 2025.

One of the worst supply and demand mis-matches will be in the West Midlands which faces a housing gap of 28,000 homes.

A possible way of overcoming this could be to convert loft space. Design consultant Rena Trepka gives some expert advice on transforming the area.

"Converting your attic space is often very cost effective, particularly in areas where property prices and space are at a premium," she said.

Important

"It's certainly less expensive and a lot less hassle than moving home.

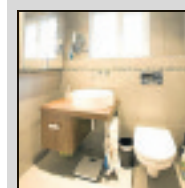

"First things first is to dot the Is and cross the Ts to ensure all the important administrative details are sorted out."

This is her three point plan:

1 Even with relaxed planning law check whether or not you will need permission.

2 Your conversion company should have the TrustMark Logo, which shows it is insured against such problems as unfinished or below standard work. Find a firm that gives you free insurance with a TrustMark provider, or expect to pay about 1.5 per cent of the contract value for insurance.

3 Ask for evidence of all guarantees - one year on installed equipment such as plumb-

Econoloft's top five conversions last year were a master bedroom with ensuite, a bedroom, a home office, a teen space/den and home cinema ing, five years on the general build, 10 years on the fibreglass roof and ten years on the roof windows.

Rena, who works for loft conversion specialists Econoloft, said: "Give yourself plenty of time to design the project as rushed decisions are often costly and regretted."

"A specialist should have a proven track record and can advise on all the options and tell you how to get the most of our space available and your budget."

"Last year Econoloft completed around 200 loft conversions across the country and the most popular was to create an extra bedroom with ensuite facilities."

"But you should also remember that the loft conversion could also result in the rest of your home being re-organised."

"So for example, if you move to your new master suite, one of your children may move into your old bedroom which many need redecorating. Or, your designer could advise pinching the smallest bedroom and turning that into a bathroom and perhaps allowing your teenager to have a smaller and less expensive conversion."

"A loft conversion should not look or feel like an add-on. The staircase is the key to making a conversion look as though it is part of the original house."

"Wherever possible the stairway should be a natural continuation of the house so that the transition from 'old' to 'new' is seamless."

"The conversion itself, in terms of style should also follow rest of the house."

The homes shortfall prediction comes from the Institute for Public Policy Research.

Jet off to see those champions of the air

ORGANISERS of one of the country's top aviation events, which attracts thousands of visitors every year, are set to welcome many champions of the air to the 2011 extravaganza.

Cosford Air Show will take place on Sunday, June 12 this year at RAF Cosford on the Shropshire/Staffordshire border and the line-up for one of the longest RAF flying displays in the UK is now coming together.

Organisers have teamed up with the Chronicle series to offer 15 readers the chance to win a pair of tickets.

At the show every display is built round the regular appearance of the Battle of Britain Memorial Flight of Lancaster bomber, Spitfire and Hurricane and the Red Arrows aerobatics team – both of which are already booked for this year.

The rest of the programme ranges from pre-war machines to the latest combat aircraft like the Typhoon.

The only Vulcan aircraft left flying in the world will be setting hearts racing at this year's Cosford Air Show. The iconic aircraft, which is one of the most popular examples of British aerospace engineering, is lined up for the show. In 2010 more than a million people watched the last airworthy Avro Vulcan fly.

Norman Branagh, Air Show Co-ordinator, said: "Each year we try to bring in different aircraft to entertain the crowds,

The spectacular Tornado is always popular along with the favourites that people turn out to see year on year.

"For 2011 we have a few surprises up our sleeves for the aviation enthusiasts and will again be working to provide jaw-dropping performances from a variety of aerobatic display teams."

"Every year the proceeds of the event, which never fails to provide a great day of entertainment for all involved, go to RAF and local charities."

Bands

Cosford Air Show is renowned for the exposure it provides for historic aircraft and the amazing feats provided annually by the modern flyers.

And as well as the excitement in the air the thousands of visitors will also be able to enjoy non-stop entertainment on the ground with a funfair, craft fair, market and aircraft exhibitions, RAF training displays and military bands – as well as entry to the RAF museum.

The Large Model Association will be back to entertain the crowds with an aircraft display of their own to kick-start the activities.

Full information on the show can be seen on the air show web site – www.cosfordairshow.co.uk – or is available on the show information line at 0844 561 1897.

Advance tickets are now available at £19 from the Cosford Air Show ticket line on 0871 230 1083 or at www.seetickets.com and children under 16 get free entry as long as they are accompanied by an adult. Tickets are £25 on the gate.

Postal bookings should be received on or before June 5, 2011, and all major credit cards are accepted on the 24-hour Cosford Air Show Ticket Line on 0871 230 1083.

HOW TO ENTER

To stand a chance of winning answer the following question.

In 2010 how many people watched the last airworthy Avro Vulcan fly?

Send your answer on a postcard with your name, address and contact number (only one entry per household to Air Show Competition, Chronicle series (editorial) 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES. Closing date: Thursday, April 21. Usual rules apply. Editor's decision is final.

Time to wash away those little niggles

SPRINGTIME and with the hope of better weather it's time to think of all those niggly jobs that need doing.

Look around outside and there are bound to be repairs needed to slabs, fences or possibly decking.

A house has to withstand the weather throughout the year. An annual inspection is sensible to check the exterior structure for damage or deterioration of paintwork, fascias, guttering, and so on, to warn you of any maintenance needed, and to prevent potential problems escalating into more serious issues.

Follow these useful tips.

- If you choose to use spray equipment for fence or shed maintenance, make sure that you take precautions to protect adjacent surfaces. For example, lay dust sheets on a path by a fence.

- Consider whether you can make repairs yourself, or whether you need the help of a professional to advise you or perhaps carry out the work. A loose tile, for example, may simply need refixing, or may indicate an underlying problem.

- Drives and paths should be kept free of vegetation and standing water. If any holes appear, repair the damage as quickly as possible. Decks and patios should be cleaned once a year with a pressure washer, so that they are safe to walk on.

- Make sure air bricks are kept clear of vegetation. Not all houses have them, but if you check at the base of exterior walls they will be visible. Make sure that they are never blocked.

- An exterior boiler vent must also be kept clear of vegetation. Check at least twice a year that it is not obstructed.

- Have gutters cleared at least once a year to prevent blockages that could lead to more serious damp problems.

- If you have wooden windows, check their condition for flaky paint or bare areas where water can attack the wood. Exterior wood should be painted every three to five years, depending on where you live. Exposed positions need painting more regularly.

Patios should be cleaned once a year with a power washer (above) and (right) clear paths of weeds

- uPVC windows are easily washed down. It is also possible to buy uPVC window cleaning products to brighten up their finish.

- Broken fence posts can be repaired with post repair spurs. Remove an old post to ground level and, instead of digging out the base, knock a repair spur in at the same position to support a new post.

- Gravel paths that have sunk can be revived by simply adding a few bags of fresh gravel and raking over the new surface.

- Sheds need maintenance and the exterior can be coated with wood protection systems just like those for maintaining a garden fence. Every few years, the felt on a shed roof should also be removed and replaced.

What a Wizard show

FOLLOW the yellow brick road to the London Palladium for a truly spectacular version of The Wizard of Oz.

The public's choice to play Dorothy, Danielle Hope, can never eclipse the movie's legendary star Judy Garland – who performed at the Palladium in her later years – but the Over The Rainbow TV series winner from Manchester won a standing ovation at the performance I attended. And quite rightly too because she sang superbly. Her Dorothy radiated a polite determination, even when faced by a wicked witch... and what a witch!

Hannah Waddingham's green, pointy-faced villain is a terrific ogre with Ken Dodd hair and a powerful singing voice heard on Red Shoe Blues, the best of four new songs from Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice that bolster the familiar Arlen and Harburg film songs. The scene when she suddenly appears above the stalls on her broomstick drew gasps from the audience.

Gorgeous

Michael Crawford makes his long-overdue return to the West End to play the dual roles of Professor Marvel and the Wizard, singing new song Wonders of the World.

Dorothy's three companions are Paul Keating as a floppy, Mickey Mouse-voiced Scarecrow; tap-dancing Tin Man Edward Baker-Duly; and David Garly as a gay Lion, who is proud to be "a friend of Dorothy" as the euphemism goes. The fourth companion is, of course, Toto, who was played by a well-behaved terrier. The cast may have their hands full when miniature schnauzer 'Dangerous Dave', the TV audience's choice for the role joins the cast this month.

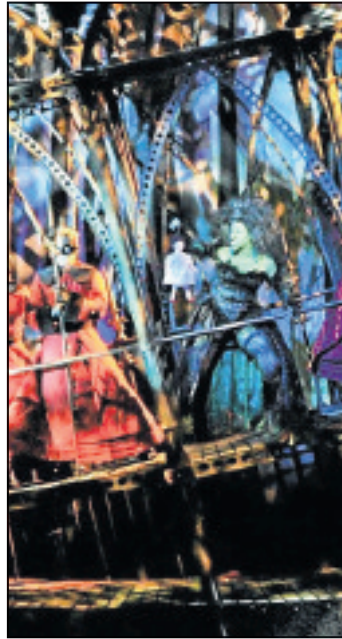

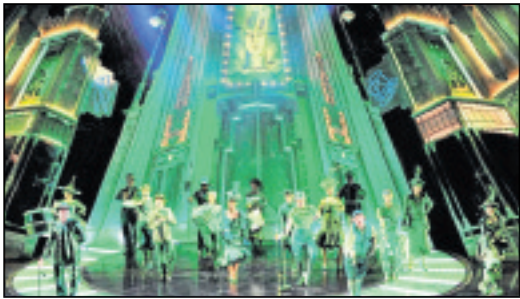

But the biggest impact of this show is its rainbow coloured glitz, glamour and special effects. It begins with a holographic tornado that whisks Dorothy off to Munchkinland. Gorgeous sets unfold from the recently restored Palladium's revolving stage. The Emerald City is an art deco dreamland and the witch's castle is an Eiffel Tower-like rotunda. This trip beyond the rainbow will live long in the memory.

Leon Burakowski

Chocolate heaven

CADBURY World is heaven for chocaholics, an opportunity to explore the history and manufacturing of the world famous chocolate in the very same Bournville factory that turns out millions of chocolate bars.

It is about as close as you are going to get to visiting Willy Wonka's factory with hi-tech fun to sweeten the learning. Nearly nine million have visited since Cadbury World opened in 1990.

The Cadbury tour blends history and information with fun and, at several points during the tour, guides give you treats to eat. During my visit I managed to chomp away on a Curlywurly, a Crunchie, a Dairy Milk and enjoy a delicious drink of warm liquid chocolate, and still had room left for a bag of Chocolate Buttons.

After collecting your ticket at the reception you join a tour that leaves at an allotted time, to ensure the exhibition does not become too crowded.

First you enter the Aztec Jungle to hear about the origins of the cocoa bean, follow holographic images of Spanish explorers who brought the bean to Europe aboard ships (raiding pirates mistook the beans for sheep droppings) and learn how chocolate became the popular drink for high society.

This is where John Cadbury comes in, selling drinking chocolate alongside other favourite new beverages coffee and tea from a shop in Birmingham's Bull Street in the 1820s. Soon he was sending his chocolate products from Bull Street, which is recreated in the exhibition, to London and beyond.

The Cadbury family, being non-conformist Quaker Christians, wanted to encourage drinking of the beverage as an alternative to alcohol. Their religious beliefs also meant in the 19th Century they were barred from most professions, so threw all their ingenuity and endeavour into the chocolate business. John's descendants discovered the magical combination of milk and chocolate, originating the Dairy Milk bar which is still one of the company's most popular products.

The Cadburys also cared for their workers, establishing Bournville Village on the rural fringe of Birmingham. More about this can be discovered in The Bournville Experience museum, included in the ticket price.

Continue the tour to discover how chocolate is made and then into the packaging plant to watch robots wrapping the bars as they are delivered on conveyors. At this point, as you enter the factory proper, chocaholics may want to take in a big deep breath – you can taste chocolate on the air.

Then it's time to clamber into a Beanmobile for the fun-for-kids ride Cadabra, through a magical land of tiny cocoa bean people and have your photo taken.

Pouring liquid chocolate in the demonstration area at Cadbury World

In the demonstration area assistants give you a taste of liquid chocolate and you have the chance to write your name in chocolate.

The advertising department offers a nostalgic opportunity to view old TV commercials and also to operate the famous Cadbury drumming gorilla. Kids will love the Purple Planet where hi-tech displays allow them to play in 'chocolate rain' or see themselves as if made of chocolate.

That's the end of the tour proper but a short walk away is Essence where you can add your own favourite ingredients – from a choice including crispy rice, marshmallows, popcorn and more – to make your own choco-concoction.

No visit would be complete without shopping in the World's Biggest Cadbury Shop where special offers mean you can pick up favourite chocolate produce, often significantly cheaper than elsewhere. The shop is also open to non-visitors to Cadbury World.

Cadbury World gets busy and numbers are limited at peak times so it's best to book. Call 0844 880 7667 or visit the website www.cadburyworld.co.uk. Special events are planned for Easter, which is prime Cadbury Creme Egg season.

There are a range of ticket prices including £43.20 for a family of two adults and two children.

Merlin's Camelot magic comes to Warwick Castle

EASTER at Warwick Castle promises to be hot stuff with the arrival of a fire-breathing dragon.

A spellbinding new attraction, Merlin: The Dragon Tower will be the first experience inspired by the hit BBC TV family drama set in the age of Arthurian legend.

At the heart of the attraction is a magical mirror, which allows the bravest sorcerers to meet The Great Dragon. Merlin tells the story of a young wizard as he struggles to survive in a kingdom where magic is banned while protecting Camelot and helping Arthur to fulfil his true destiny. Merlin: The Dragon Tower gives visitors the chance to step into that magical world.

This Easter weekend (April 22-25) will see the castle grounds transformed into a Mediaeval Battle Scene, recreating the famous Battle of Barnet. Re-enactors will spend four days eating, sleeping and living on site. Castle visitors will be able to see how an encamped army would live, how they would cook, amuse themselves and prepare their weapons for battle. In honour of the royal wedding, the castle is conjuring up some of Britain's greatest monarchs to meet guests and regale them with tales. Among the guests will be King Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth I and Victoria.

Throughout the Easter holidays, visitors can also catch the Warwick Warriors, who will showcase their arsenal of weapons, or watch the Raising of the Portcullis. Nikita the sea eagle and fellow birds of prey return for the spectacular Flight of the Eagles show, where guests will meet the resident falconer. Brave souls can

The castle's new attraction was inspired by the popular TV show Merlin, about the wizard's boyhood days experience The Castle Dungeon.

Walking on wild side with lemurs

The safari park near Kidderminster is now home to lemurs

WEST Midland Safari Park has opened the largest Lemur walk-through reserve in the country.

The new exhibit Walking with Lemurs consists of a natural woodland walk now home to Ring Tailed Lemur, White-Fronted Brown Lemur and Red Bellied Lemur, all natives of Madagascar.

Lemurs have free range of the woodland, which is located in an area of the grounds landscaped by Capability Brown in the 1800s. This is the first time that visitors to the park will be able to see and interact with this species, introduced for 2011.

There is a programme of daily talks and Lemur-themed activities. The new Lemur exhibit took seven months to complete and is part of a £1m investment in new attractions being launched this year.

Bob Lawrence, Director of Wildlife, said: "Lemur are fascinating animals that often display unusual behaviour that is both captivating and rather cheeky."

They are habitual sunbathers and enjoy nothing more than finding a nice perch to while away an hour or so. When roused, part of their communication process can become somewhat theatrical too, particularly when they engage in stink fights by waving their scent-marked tail at an opponent."

West Midland Safari and Leisure Park is open daily, including Bank Holidays, up to Friday, November 4. Walking with Lemurs is included as part of the standard admission charge of £13.99 for adults, £11.99 for children. A family saver ticket costs £46.76, which admits two adults and two children. Admission also includes a free return ticket. Amusement rides are charged extra in all cases.

Stormseal fitted our windows over 20 years ago, since moving we have had a conservatory and a full house of windows and recommended them to all our friends and family

Gittings of Dudley

Thank you to your office staff who co-ordinated everything perfectly

Mr and Mrs
Simmons
of Walsall

I was recommended to the company 10 years ago and recently had a conservatory fitted.

I am over the moon with the quality and service.

Miss Rae of Stafford

I am delighted with my conservatory and would highly recommend your firm.

Miss Challoner of Wolverhampton

The way you and your company dealt with me from start to finish has beyond doubt more than met my requirements and given me total satisfaction.

I am very impressed.

Mr Hemmings of Coventry

EUROVISION:
YOUR COUNTRY
NEEDS BLUE

BBC1, 6.10pm

When Josh Dubovie came last at the 2010 Eurovision Song Contest with That Sounds Good to Me, it probably put some British acts off ever entering this year's competition. Luckily boy band Blue weren't about to shy away from the challenge of restoring the nation's pride. This one-off special sees how members Lee Ryan, Antony Costa, Duncan James and Simon Webbe are preparing for their appearance in Düsseldorf as they meet choreographers, designers and stylists, before embarking on a publicity tour around Europe. Graham Norton narrates.

Oldbury Rep
Entertaining Mr Sloane
By Joe Orton

7 - 14 May

Kath may be prim and proper but her intentions are blatant when she takes in a youth named Sloane as her lodger. Events take a bizarre turn when Kath's brother turns up and they both set about capturing the affections of the youth. A murder ensues leaving Mr Sloane at the mercy of the brother and sister.

Orton's black comedy was one of the most important plays of the Sixties and was successfully revived in the West End last year.

THE CUBE

ITV1, 7pm

Some viewers may look at some of the challenge on this game show and ask themselves "So what's the big deal?" But while the tasks may look simple from the comfort of your own armchair, it's an entirely different story when you're performing them in a transparent box with an audience and Phillip Schofield watching your every move. If that wasn't enough pressure, there's also the knowledge that millions of viewers will later be watching you at home, analysing your every move thanks to the slow-motion replays and cameras that capture you from every angle. And of course, the fact there's £250,000 at stake won't help with the contestants' nerves either.

2011 Compass pointing a way forward for Jeep

COUPLED with interior refinements, and improved ride and handling characteristics in all conditions – courtesy of upgraded steering and suspension systems – the new Jeep Compass offers a blend of premium styling, capability, efficiency and value in the compact-SUV segment.

With the new 2011 Jeep Compass, we've applied the premium design cues of our award-winning new Grand Cherokee," says Mike Manley, President and CEO – Jeep Brand, Chrysler Group LLC. "Combined with new interior appointments, and refinements to the suspension and steering systems, Jeep Compass provides consumers with the ultimate combination of styling, capability, fuel economy, efficiency, safety and value in the important compact-SUV segment."

The 2011 Jeep Compass has more than 30 safety and security features, including standard side-curtain air bags, electronic stability control (ESC), electronic roll mitigation, Hill-start Assist (with manual transmission), side curtain air bags front and rear, and available front-seat-mounted side air bags.

The new 2011 Jeep Compass has a distinct family resemblance to the all-new, premium 2011 Jeep Grand Cherokee.

With a new bonnet, new front bumpers, new front valance and new headlamps as well as a new grille that has been detailed with chrome surrounding the traditional seven slots found on all Jeep vehicles, the new face of the Compass features a more serious, yet sophisticated, appearance. Lighting performance is improved with the use of quad reflector headlamps, and the fog lamps are now high output projector lamps.

A band of protective cladding has been added for 2011, serving to fend off debris when driving in challenging weather conditions or off-road, and providing a new appearance.

This trend continues with enhancements to the rear of the Compass. A new rear valance, new body-colour rear spoiler, and subtle, upscale touches including new LED taillamps, and on the Limited model, bright trim on the kick plates and a chrome exhaust, adorn the new 2011 Jeep Compass. Topping it off, a new set of roof rails have been designed with a slimmed down appearance and a small amount of brightwork. The 2011 Compass sports new, standard 17-inch alloy wheels, and 18-inch alloy wheels are also available.

Interior upgrades for the Compass include new soft touch front-door trim panels with a padded upper surface; a new centre armrest; a new steering wheel with integrated controls that allows drivers to operate the radio, cruise control, available handsfree phone and other vehicle functions while keeping their hands on the wheel; new cloth interior with premium cloth bucket seats in the front; standard Cruise Control on all models; new backlighting of door switches, door locks, windows and power mirror controls.

The new 2011 Jeep Compass offers an array of clever features including navigation with iPod interface, a premium audio system with nine Boston Acoustic speakers, power sunroof, illuminated cup holders, and fold-flat rear seats are some of the available features that make the Compass the ideal compact SUV, enabling consumers to enjoy any adventure.

Capability

It also features Freedom Drive I – a full-time, active four-wheel-drive system with lock mode, designed to give drivers year-round assurance with the ability to handle rough weather and low-traction conditions. This active four-wheel-drive system is designed specifically for daily use, and is particularly useful in slick conditions that come with rain and light snow. Freedom Drive I also features a lockable centre coupling, giving drivers the ability to put the Jeep Compass in four-wheel-drive lock mode to handle deep snow, sand and other low-traction surfaces.

Compass features a 2.0-litre petrol World Engine that provides 158 horsepower (117 kW) and 141 lb.-ft. (191 Nm) of torque.

Two families now have the chance to move into a completely furnished new home at no additional cost

A cunning plan for homes at Fox Walk

ONE of the region's leading developers is offering homebuyers in Cradley Heath the chance to move into a family home at Fox Walk, the company's sought-after development on Foxoak Street.

Two families now have the opportunity to move into a new home from Barratt West Midlands, complete with carpets, lights, turf gardens and curtains for no additional cost, thanks to a new release of Maidstone-style properties on plots 38 and 39.

"Our Maidstone-style homes have been designed with families in mind" says Trevor Dixon, sales manager for the developer.

"And, we're delighted to be able to offer homebuyers some of the useful comforts that make moving home easier and less expensive."

The Maidstone three-bedroom home has an open-plan kitchen and breakfast room with French doors to the rear garden as well as a large lounge to the front of the property that is ideal for entertaining friends or relaxing in front of a film.

Upstairs, the home has a master bedroom with en suite bathroom as well as two further bedrooms and an additional bathroom.

"It really is a fantastic home for a growing family and we're really pleased to offer homebuyers such an excellent start to life in their home here," continues Trevor.

Warranty

"And, what's more, with Barratt West Midlands, homebuyers receive peace of mind with our exclusive five year warranty."

The developer's five year guarantee on fixtures and fittings provides cover over and above NHBC standards - absolutely free.

"So you don't have to worry about any unanticipated costs when you move in, which can be a massive help for anyone who is stretching their budget to provide more space for their family" Trevor adds.

"Homebuyers also have the opportunity to take advantage of our Head Start scheme, which could help them move into one of these terrific properties for as little as £131,707 and with a deposit as low as £6,585."

With Head Start, customers can move into their new home for just 85 per cent of the asking price with the remaining 15 per cent funded by a deferred Barratt loan that is payable either in 10 years or when the home sells, whichever comes first.

Fox Walk offers a single two- bedroomed coach house priced at £119,950 and a selection of three- and four- bedroomed houses priced from £139,950.

For more information, contact the sales office on 01384 411538, open daily from 10am to 5pm.

Alternatively, call the sales hotline on 0844 811 9933, open seven days a week from 8am to 9pm or log on to www.barratthomes.co.uk/foxwalk

Stone chisels out hat-trick gloom for Stour

DAVID STONE became the third player in the last five matches to hit a hat-trick against Stourbridge as the Glassboys' recent away-day woes continued.

The visitors were hampered by the loss of central defender Sam Smith in the opening stages with a head wound that required stitches. In the 11th minute Ben Bingham delivered in a left-wing corner and Paul McCone stuck out a leg at the near post but the ball bounced wide.

Banbury 4 Stourbridge 0

Just past the half-hour mark, home custodian Joe Murrell was drawn off his line to reach a long throw-in and he could only palm the ball to the feet of Linden Dovey, who pushed his shot harmlessly wide.

Lewis Solly had not had much to do for the first 40 minutes but he was beaten five minutes before the break when a left-wing corner from Joe Coleman was only half-cleared to Declan Benjamin.

His shot was blocked but the ball rebounded to Nathan Haisley and his 25-yard shot took a deflection and flew in off the right-hand post.

Four minutes into the second half Banbury doubled their advantage to take a grip on the game. A save, a block and a scramble were concluded when Stone fired home.

Stone pounced after a blocked header to make it three.

Stone was then bundled over by McCone and got up to send Solly the wrong way with his spot-kick.

Five wins out of six for United

Causeway Utd 2 Friar Lane 0

CAUSEWAY celebrated their fifth win in six Midland Alliance games despite a below-par display against struggling Friar Lane & Epworth.

Following the 4-0 home win over Heath Hayes on Thursday, manager Carl Burley opted to rotate his squad and rest a number of players in preparation for the visit of FA Vase finalists Coalville Town which was taking place on Tuesday.

The opening quarter was evenly balanced with the visitors firing a warning on 20 minutes when Jordan Lever broke down the right and crossed for team-mate Ryan Rowley, who failed to connect.

United sprung to life and within four minutes were celebrating the opening goal. A Craig Gregg effort deflected into the path of Sam Beasley, who maintained his cool to score his second goal in three days.

Scramble

On 34 minutes United were awarded an indirect free-kick and Scott Stevenson floated a perfect ball into a packed goalmouth where, following a scramble, Gregg and Aaron Lloyd both had efforts cleared off the line.

Stevenson then unleashed a 30-yard strike that struck the bar.

With half-time looming, Aaron Lloyd punished the visitors for some sloppy defending as his solo run from 30 yards out resulted in his 20th goal of the season.

Midway through the second period United should have added another goal but Beasley fired over under pressure.

Ten minutes from time United had a penalty after a Beasley shot was adjudged to have been handled by Scott Goodman. Lloyd stepped up but the keeper dived right to save.

Bustleholme battle to draw

BUSTLEHOLME followed up their cup victory against Tividale with a hard-fought 2-2 draw at Dudley Town.

With keeper Neil Page out injured centre-half Iain Bevan donned the gloves and was blameless for both goals.

Dudley went in front when Geoff Hill took advantage of slack defending to beat Bevan. Bustleholme drew level on the half-hour when Chris Watley netted from close range after a Matty Jukes header had cannoned off the bar.

Danny Bell headed Dudley back in front from a corner but Ryan Mitchell, promoted from the youth team, made it 2-2 from a Ryan Trumpeter cross. Hill was dismissed for a second yellow.

YELTZ THROUGH THE TRAPDOOR

Halesowen Town 0 Oxford City 3

HALESOWEN were finally condemned to inevitable relegation from the Zamaretto Premier League by three Oxford goals at the start of the second-half in a low-key encounter.

Chances were at a premium all afternoon although Halesowen enjoyed the better of first-half play.

Captain Mark Smith chipped to Kevin Moncheu in the 22nd minute but the defence cleared.

Brown saves point

Tipton Town 1 Dunkirk 1

TIPTON battled back from a goal down to earn a point with a spirited second-half revival.

Ross Brown struck with six minutes left.

With their nearest Midland Alliance challengers Coalville Town losing at home to Westfields, it could prove a vital point.

The top two meet at Coalville on Saturday in a fascinating clash.

Dunkirk bossed the first half, Reece Bertram impressing and the lively strikers causing plenty of problems.

Jarrod Westcarr missed the target from close range with a neat shot on the turn while Tipton's Lee Osbourne was denied by Jake Want.

After just 10 minutes a free-kick was punched clear to Daniel Elliott, 30 yards out, who hooked the ball back in and saw it find the net.

Tipton received the proverbial roasting at the break and reacted by taking the game to the visitors as the second half commenced.

Six minutes from time, Marcus Jackson's corner was headed in at the back post by Brown.

An Adam Robinson shot deflected to Moncheu six minutes later but this time James Clarke made a last-ditch clearance.

Rory Curtis went closer still when his shot from the left was blocked and late in the first half Andrew Westwood's corner was headed on by Josh Skidmore to Mark Smith but the ball landed on top of the net.

Improving Oxford turned up the heat after the break to grab three goals in a devastating 20-minute spell.

Just 20 seconds into the second period, the prolific Felipe Barcelos put Oxford ahead after turning the last defender to fire home low into the net.

Exchanged

Barcelos was instrumental again when he exchanged passes for Jerome Anderson to double the lead with a left-footed drive beyond Louis Connor in the 63rd minute.

Just two minutes later Barcelos made it a comfortable 3-0 by drilling into the bottom corner from the edge of the area, to give the Yeltz the unwanted statistic of conceding 100 league goals this season.

Oxford goalkeeper White remained an untroubled spectator during the second half and Oxford went close again in the 78th minute when Robinson cleared Marvin Martin's dangerous left-wing cross.

Halesowen Town goalkeeper Louis Connor claims a cross to deny Oxford City.

Juniors race to third spot in round one

JUNIOR swimmers from Halesowen Swimming Club took a battling third place at Walsall in the first round of the Nuneaton Junior League division one.

The team were facing tough competition in the form of last year's league winners Boldmere A, who duly headed the scorecharts.

Runners-up were another good side in Lutterworth, who were very strong in gaining promotion last year.

After the opening 12 events Boldmere had taken a commanding lead but Halesowen were challenging for second spot.

But they were unable to reel in Lutterworth who held on to second place throughout.

Halesowen were forced to settle for a comfortable third place overall, but 45 points clear of fourth-ranked team Solihull.

Double individual event winners were Katherine Morrice and Ben Meakin in the freestyle and butterfly with Jakob Baker winning the freestyle.

The relay teams swam well with the age nine girls including Kathryn Kelly, Amber Robbins and Lila Shaaban winning the medley and the age nine boys including Thomas Benson, Sam Bailey and Jack Vale taking the freestyle.

Promising

The age 10 boys with James Cuthbert, Jack Simpson and George Westwood won the freestyle relay.

The team including Indu Appanna, Emma Baker, Talia Mitchell, James Benson and Mark Laing won the final relay in fine style.

Coaches made special mention of Amber Robbins who was making her debut.

Results: Boldmere A 243 points, Lutterworth 211, Halesowen 192, Solihull 147, Stratford Sharks 146, Walsall 111.

Girls League

HALAS HAWKS 2 KINVER 1
HALAS Hawks under-10 girls got back on the winning trail.

An early goal from Maddison Eden was soon followed by another from Charlotte Fereday although Kinver pulled one back from the spot.

Withymoor Colts 1

HALAS HAWKS 3
A fine team performance by the under-12s saw them run out winners against a good Withymoor team.

Lucy Heaselgrave, Sophie Heaselgrave and Amy Plimmer scored the goals, the platform built by good defending and creative team play.

HALAS HAWKS 9

Withymoor 2
The under-13s' fearsome attack put them into their second cup final. Scorers were Sophie Blount (4), Amy Blakemore (3), Sophie Pritchard and Mia Bell.

Bustleholme 2

HALAS HAWKS 5
Two goals by Charis Maguire and a third from Danielle Lawrence put the under-14s in charge.

Second-half goals came from Jess Morton and Abby Willingale.
